FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Dear DaySpring Emmaus Community

What a wonderful gift God provided us with in Walks #76 and #77. Not only were the walks full but the Candlelight services were standing room only, the sendoff and closing for both walks were well attended and God's overwhelming love could be felt in every function of both walks.

As we continue to grow, both in numbers and attendance at the various functions, it is easy to see God at work in our community and He is doing some mighty things. While it is great to revel in the latest walks, we must remember, there is much more to be done. There is the walk in June at Wooded Glen and then the Picnic at Scenic Hills Christian Camp not to mention the final vote for new board members and then the two walks in the fall at the woods. I encourage each of you to be involved both in sponsorship and attendance of the various functions. We have a wonderful loving Emmaus family and this is an exciting time to participate in it.

Let us continue to live out His greatest commandment, in Matthew when asked, "what is the greatest commandment", Jesus says: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind." And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself." Let us continue to live a life of love at home, at work and in all areas of our lives.

DeColores,

John Hodges, President Elect
DaySpring Emmaus

DaySpring Emmaus Weather Report

As I recently reflected on the gray overcast days, I suddenly realized just what a funk I had gotten in to. How it seemed harder to get things to “go right” or to even “go” at all. I felt in many ways that I was just going through the motions and getting nowhere. Then the next day the sun came out and mine was a completely different world. The air was clearer, the day was warmer and people just seemed to be more willing to smile back at me.

This is much the way it was before we were finally convinced to go on our Walk. We made our decision because we seemed to be living in those overcast days more and more of the time. We knew there was sunshine out there but we didn’t know exactly how to find it. Then we encountered that one person who seemed to always have the sun shining on him. And he told us that if we wanted what he had all we needed to do was go on a “walk”- whatever that was.

After a few more “overcast” weeks, you finally gave in and agreed to go but the week before you were still questioning your decision. Then you again remembered your friend’s “sunshine” and how warm and wonderful it was going to feel when you could bask in it again.

So you went on your walk and realized that Emmaus had the answer. You left a lot of baggage at dying moments, you had your mountain top experience at candlelight and you willingly pledged at closing to never be out of the light again.

However, recently you’ve looked around yourself and the gloom seems to be creeping in again. What do you do this time? You can’t go on another walk. It will be some time before you can work another walk (if you ever have) and yet you have this feeling again that there is still something missing.

Well, you’re in luck. Emmaus has the answer for that too. It’s called Reunion Groups.

Believe me I know all the answers as to why you CAN’T join a Reunion Group. They go something like this - I don’t have the time, it’s not convenient, I don’t know any of those people and (Satan’s favorite) I can do it myself. I know them all because I used them all. I fought joining a reunion group just as hard as I fought going on my walk.

Then I asked myself these questions. Did God ask me to go through my struggles all by myself – No. Didn’t He say that He would be with me always – Yes. And didn’t He also say that He would provide me the strength – Yes. BUT, He did not say He would do it for me. Then it dawned on me that a reunion group was just another way that God is with me and providing me the strength to make the most of my 4th days.

Don’t kid yourself; you can’t do reunion group by yourselves, although Satan would have you think differently. You need accountability and Reunion Groups provide that accountability along with a group of caring friends who will encourage you with, what one of my friend’s calls, “rigorous honesty”.

If you are looking for love, support and encouragement, then you are looking for a Reunion Group. Just as we didn’t think we needed an Emmaus Walk, we also tend to think we don’t need a Reunion Group either. Don’t we ever learn?

Why not pray about it and ask God what you should do?

Vaughan Hankins

But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him. For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. - (Roman 5:8-10)
