

President's Letter

He is here, Alleluia. As we were singing this song in our church service this morning, I was reminded of Candlelight, and what an awesome experience it is for both Emmaus pilgrims and teams. God truly is here, even during these trying economic times, and He loves us unconditionally. Alleluia!

Emmaus truly is a wonderful tool, helping each of us grow closer to Christ and strengthening our commitment to our church homes. I went on my original walk in Louisville during the summer of 1990. At that time, the DaySpring community had not yet been formed. While I don't remember all of the specifics of that walk, I do remember the experience of God's agape love, shown by the team and community. I remember when the DaySpring Emmaus community was formed, and have been blessed to watch as our community has grown to what it is today. What a wonderful blessing it was to attend the 100th walk celebration last month. I enjoyed seeing the pictures from each walk, and it was wonderful to see people from the earliest walks and from the most recent walks worshipping together.

I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome the newest members of our community, the pilgrims of Walks #99 and #100. John Barr and Brenda Masden both did a fantastic job leading the weekends, and I praise God for their willingness to serve. The testimonies never fail to amaze me and show that God, as usual, was moving in O'Bannon Woods in a mighty way.

I'd also like to ask you to pray for our upcoming spring lay directors, Steve Satow and Melanie Henderson, as they prepare to lead these walks and as they begin to put together their teams. Also, we have several openings for the spring walks. So please be in prayer as you consider who you might sponsor in April.

In addition, I wanted to let you know that George Fox has stepped down from the position of DaySpring community treasurer. He's served faithfully for eight years, and is ready for someone else to serve. The board has asked Phyllis Krush if she would serve, and she graciously agreed. Please pray for Phyllis as she steps into this new role.

As we enter this Thanksgiving season, I'd like to ask each of you to consider all we have to be thankful for – for our country where we are free to worship our marvelous Lord, for our churches and families, and for the DaySpring community. Thank you so much for your support and your prayers as we serve together in the DaySpring community. May God bless each of you.

De Colores,
Paige McGuire, President
DaySpring Emmaus Community of Southern Indiana

Attention DaySpring EMMAUS COMMUNITY!!!

Sponsoring a pilgrim is a wonderful privilege and joy! BUT... before you send in your pilgrim's application, make sure you're adequately prepared for this special experience!

Jesus, himself, shows us the importance of preparation in John 14:2-3 (NIV):

"In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am."

We should follow Jesus' example and ensure that we have prepared ourselves and our pilgrim for the Emmaus Experience.

Sponsorship Checklist: Before the Walk

- Pray about whom to sponsor and how to approach him or her. We recommend that you not be a sponsor if you are on a team.
- Carefully read and follow the details in the "Sponsorship Guide." Then contact the registrar or download an application from the website.
- Mark your calendar to support the Walk at Send-Off, Sponsors' Hour, Candlelight, and Closing. (If you cannot fulfill that gift of your presence, wait until another time to sponsor.)
- Approach the individual or both the husband and wife about attending the Walk, and share details. Couples are strongly recommended to attend the same set of Walks.
- Give the pilgrim the application to complete and give back to you. Fill out your portion and mail it promptly with the registration fee. Explain that there may be a waiting list and that pilgrims will be notified directly when they have been confirmed.
- Do your homework, and solicit personal letters in plenty of time.
- Sign up at gatherings or online for the prayer vigil. It's meaningful for pilgrims to know you're praying for them.
- Review all necessary items to be packed, answer questions, and clarify when you will pick up your pilgrim. Be on time!

If you have additional questions about sponsorship, or if you need a copy of the DaySpring Sponsorship Guide (revised August 2008), please contact Tim Braun, Board Member – Community Training & Sponsorship. His contact information can be found on the back page of the newsletter.

*Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and praise his name.*

- Psalm 100:4

Listed above are the known active Emmaus Reunion Groups in our area. If you are presently not a member of a Reunion Group, either seek out one on the list, or find a couple of your friends who have been on the Walk and start your own Reunion Group. As tremendous as your Emmaus Walk was, the best way to keep the fire going is to surround yourself with fellow believers who listen to one another, hold each other accountable, celebrate the grace of God in each person's life, and reinforce each one's commitment to live in union with Christ daily. If you are presently a member of a Reunion Group which is not on the list, start a new Group, or have corrections to an existing Group, please let Michael May know so that the list can be updated. Also, if you have any questions regarding Reunion Groups, please contact Michael either by e-mail at m_may@verizon.net or by phone at 812-633-4921.

VOICE OF THE COMMUNITY

"The biggest change I noticed in myself after my Walk was that I now appreciate the valleys as well as the peaks."

- David Wells, Walk #99

"Since my Walk, it's incredible how God is using me to help others. Realizing that to bless others is a blessing to me. Doing what God would have me to do in His name.."

- Pat Crowe, Walk #98

"A change others have noticed about me since my Walk is patience. Waiting on the Lord because He is in control."

- Linda M. Anderson, Walk #98

"One way I am renewing my commitment to Jesus is by allowing Him to love others through me; willingness to give my time and energy to the opportunities He calls me to in my church; giving Him my time at the beginning of each day before I turn on the computer, cell phone, TV - letting Him direct each new day - one day at a time."

- Sandy McCoy, Walk #98

"God seemed closest to me on my Walk when I stepped into the line at the Candlelight. I felt a tremendous love envelope me. A love I never felt so great before. It took that many people to carry the amount of love God has for me."

- Terry Roudenbush, Walk #99

"A change others have noticed about me since my Walk is that I am more humble and want to help the lost to know Jesus more."

- Sarah A. Schoen, Walk #98
